IVBA Membership - $15 per year

New Members joining during January through June pay $15 per year. If joining from July through December, the fee is $8. All membership renewals come due in January.

The Illinois Valley Blacksmith Association (IVBA) is a non-profit organization chartered with the State of Illinois to promote and expand the horizons of artistic, architectural and practical blacksmithing while preserving the heritage of this craft. The IVBA is a chapter of the Artist Blacksmith Association of North America (ABANA).

As a member, you can participate in IVBA-sponsored classes, workshops and demonstrations offered throughout the year. You are also entitled to take part in the annual business meeting and help guide the IVBA's direction.

Your membership entitles you to receive IVBA's newsletter, the TUYERE, published six times yearly to keep the membership informed about:

IVBA Events	Book & Video Library	Projects Ideas
ABANA Events	Tips & Techniques	IVBA Events Calendar

To join or renew, please send signed and filled-out form with check (made out to IVBA) to:
